Do you work in Primary Care?

Are you a future leader within your team/practice/area?

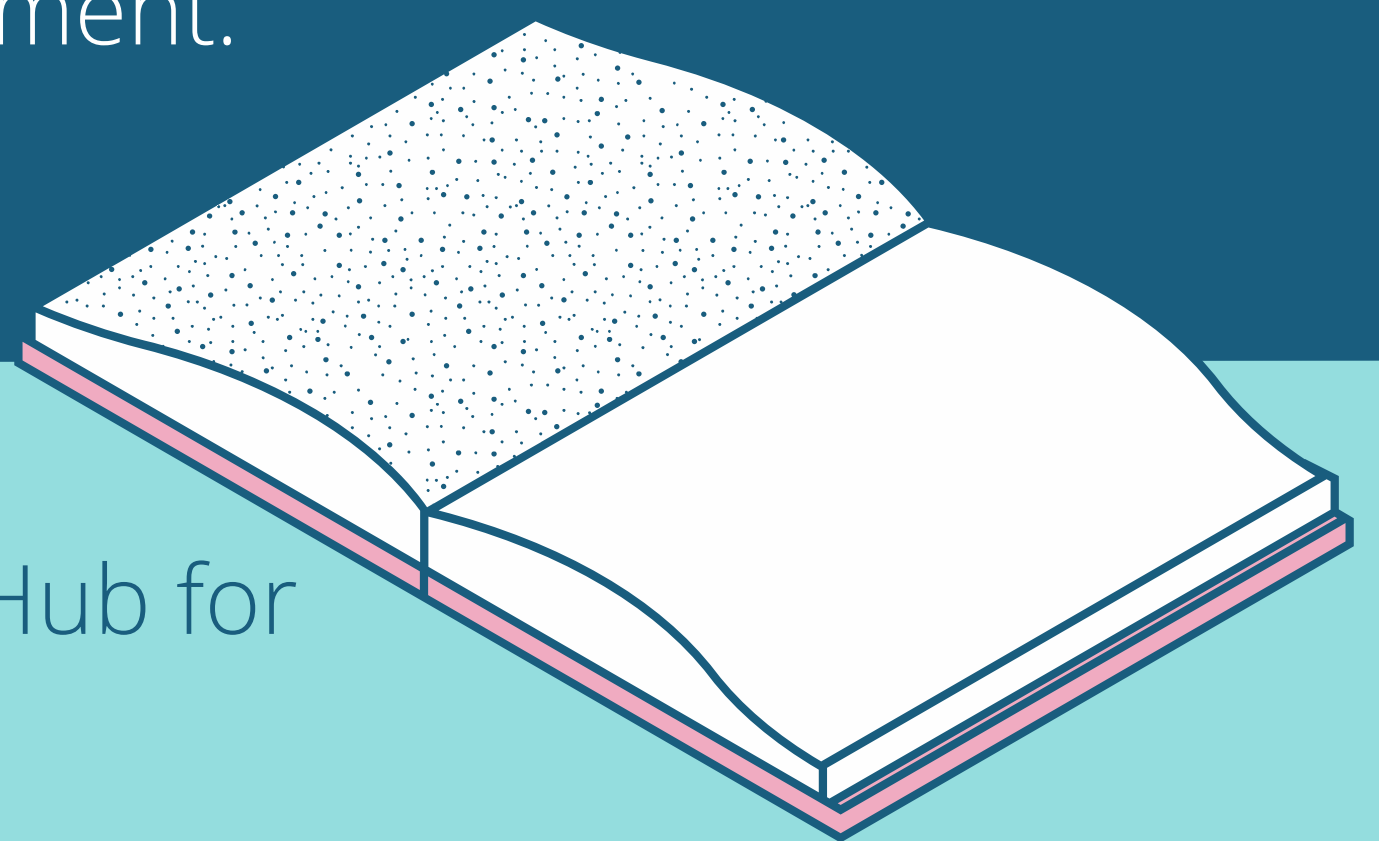

The Mary Seacole Programme is a nationally recognised six-month leadership development course to expand knowledge and skills in leadership and management.

Multi-professional Leadership roles demand significant change, the programme explores key engagement themes, and how to behave in the workplace to be a success in your role.

Sponsored by HEE, this Pan London course is only £150 (nationally £995).

Commitment: minimum 5 hours of online study per week via the virtual campus, 3 x1 day virtual behavioural workshops and final assignment.

Contact your local London Training Hub for more information.
